June 11, 2011

Dear Mr. Bromberg, Mr. Mehyar, and Mr. Khateeb,

Congratulations! We're pleased to inform you that Eco Peace/Friends of the Earth Middle East has been selected as the winner of this year's Organizational Outstanding Leadership Award from the Association for Conflict Resolution's International Development Committee (IDC). After extensive deliberation about several excellent finalists, the selection committee strongly believes that your organization stands out in exemplifying the qualities of outstanding leadership in promoting conflict resolution in international development projects.

We look forward to presenting a representative of Eco Peace/Friends of the Earth Middle East (FoEME) with the award during the International Day of the Association for Conflict Resolution's annual conference. This year's International Day will be held October 12th, 2011, in San Diego, California (USA), the first day of the conference. From this point on, the IDC will make an effort to fundraise to help cover some of your travel expenses. Your nominator suggested that it would be helpful if we could assist with some of your travel expenses to be present to receive the award, and while we cannot guarantee any specific amount, we will do our best to fundraise to contribute toward those costs. In the past, we have worked jointly with our awardees and their nominators to fundraise, and we look forward to working with you and your nominator in asking for sponsorships through your personal and organizational contacts.

A press release will go out at the beginning of next week announcing the Award decisions. Until then, please confirm with us your acceptance of the award.

Again, a warm congratulations from us!
