INVITATION

NGO Red Dead Briefing

(Better Dead than Red)

EcoPeace/Friends of the Earth Middle East on the Red Dead Conduit Project and the World Bank's Findings

The World Bank recently published its research findings on the proposed Red Dead Conduit project and in mid-February will hold a set of public hearings in the region. Given that each participant at the public hearing will be given only 5-10 minutes to comment, FoEME has decided to hold an NGO briefing on the issue to allow for a more in depth discussion of our concerns.

FoEME has been outspoken on the project's environmental, social and economic risks for many years, especially after conducting a series of research studies of our own. See: http://foeme.org/uploads/publications_publ75_1.pdf

We are therefore delighted to invite you to an NGO briefing to be held in the office of the Heinrich Boell Foundation in Tel Aviv on February 12th from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm. It will be led by FoEME's Israeli and Jordanian Directors together, Gidon Bromberg, and Munqeth Mehyar. Following their presentations questions will be taken from the audience.

NGO Red-Dead Briefing:
Tuesday, February 12, 2013 at 11:00
at the Heinrich Boell Foundation's office:
1 Har Sinai Street; 2nd floor
(in back of the Great Synagogue on Allenby St.)

Due to space limitations please RSVP to Mira Edelstein, FoEME Foreign Media Officer, mira@foeme.org by February 10, 2013.

FoEME's efforts to inform the public on concerns related to the Red Dead Conduit are supported by the Green Environment Fund and the Heinrich Boell Stiftung

*NGO in special consultative status with the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) of the United Nations
